ASSISTANCE LEAGUE OF ST. LOUIS NAMES 2020-2021 BOARD

Assistance League of St. Louis—an all-volunteer organization that for 30 years has served the needs of thousands of St. Louisans—recently named members of its new board for the 2020-2021 fiscal year.

Decked out with their masks to counter COVID19, the new members are (from left, first row) President Elect Yolanda Perez-Cunningham, of Ladue; President Dawn Thomas, of Town and Country; and Secretary Mary Cullmann, of the city of St. Louis. Second row, from left, are Vice President Strategic Planning Marilyn Panter, of Ballwin; Vice President, Treasurer Edna Merz, of Ellisville; Vice President Education Sandy Thal, of Town and Country; Vice President Philanthropic Programs Pam Bogosian, of Chesterfield; Vice President Fund Development Connie Curran, of Chesterfield; and Bette Goette, Parliamentarian, of Ballwin.

Not pictured are Vice President Membership Sandy Brody, of Manchester, and Vice President Marketing Communications Marita Perlak, of Chesterfield.
