ASSISTANCE LEAGUE OF ST. LOUIS NAMES 2021-2022 BOARD

Assistance League of St. Louis—an all-volunteer organization that for 30 years has served the needs of thousands of St. Louisans—recently named members of its new board for the 2021-2022 fiscal year. The new members are (seated from left) President Yolanda Perez-Cunningham, of Ladue; and President Elect Pam Bogosian, of Chesterfield. Second row, from left, are Vice President, Treasurer Edna Merz, of Ellisville; Vice President Education Verleana Moore, of Ballwin; Vice President Strategic Planning Marilyn Panter, of Ballwin; Vice President Fund Development Connie Curran, of Chesterfield; Secretary Kathy Huls, of Dardenne Prairie, St. Charles County; Parliamentarian Bette Goette, of Ballwin; Vice President Marketing Communications Sandy Thal, of Town and Country; Vice President Philanthropic Programs Sandy Brody, of Manchester; and Vice President Membership Jane Marschner, of Des Peres.

ABOUT ASSISTANCE LEAGUE OF ST. LOUIS. For more than 30 years, Assistance League of St. Louis' mission has been to identify, develop, fund and implement ongoing philanthropic programs to serve specific needs of children and adults in the St. Louis community. Assistance League of St. Louis is run by an all-volunteer group of almost 500. In 2019-2020 alone, Assistance League members and friends donated over 65,000 volunteer hours through six philanthropic programs, impacting more than 34,100 lives. Each program has a special focus from providing new school uniforms to shoes and socks and from personal care items for crisis shelters and books for aspiring readers. All funds raised are returned to the St. Louis community. Assistance League of St. Louis is an accredited charity of the Better Business Bureau and has achieved a Platinum Transparency Rating from GuideStar.
